

Speaker Introduction for

Gail Krawetz (Kra-vetz')

Gail has spent her entire life living, working, and raising a family in Saskatchewan.

Although she loves to travel to foreign destinations, she is always anxious to return home to what she calls the “best place in the world to live.”

For close to 36 years, she devoted her life to education. As a high school history and English teacher, she shared her love of Canadian history with her students and worked diligently to develop their writing and communication skills.

After retirement, Gail finally focussed on her own writing ambitions. She writes a bi-weekly column for several local papers and maintains a personal blog. She has also penned articles for various magazines. Her first book, Risk and Reward, was launched on November 3, 2017.

Gail lives with her husband Ken on a farm near Invermay, Saskatchewan. She loves gardening, making pierogis and other Ukrainian dishes, and watching House Hunters International.

Please give a warm welcome Gail Krawetz.
